

NUCLEAR DYNAMITE

Filmography

Gary Marcuse, Director, film, television, radio

2000 Nuclear Dynamite One hour science and history television documentary about the Soviet -American race to develop nuclear explosives for geographical engineering. A co-production with the NFB for broadcast on CBC "The Nature of Things."

Touched by Ice a documentary in development for CBC Rough Cuts on the subject of suicide by young people, for Avanti Productions, Tony Papa producer.

1999 Pride and Prejudice: The road to multiculturalism and human rights in British Columbia. One hour social issues documentary on racism, white supremacists, multiculturalism and the history of BC, for the Knowledge Network, Sharon Lipovsky, Producer.

Jaguars Location shooting in Belize for half-hour nature documentary for the Champions of the Wild series Omni Productions for the Discovery Channel. Co-Director: Chris Bruyere.

1998 Giant Sea Turtles A half- hour nature documentary shot on location in Guyana for the Champions of the Wild series Omni Productions for the Discovery Channel.

1997 Café Bohème A six minute dance video for Bravo! Choreographer: Gioconda Barbuto. Produced by Face to Face Media . Co-director: Betsy Carson.

1995 The Mind of a Child A 60 min television documentary about inner city children affected by cultural deprivation and a First Nations teacher who helping them. A Face to Face Media production in association with the NFB. Filmed in 16 mm and Beta-SP video on location in Jerusalem, Vancouver, and Washington DC. Awards: Gemini (Canada Award); Chris Award : Columbus Int'l Film and Video Festival; Silver Award, Charleston Int'l Film and Video Festival; Silver Apple, National Educational Media Network (Oakland). Golden Sheaf, Yorkton Short Film and Video Festival, Leo Award, British Columbia Motion Picture Association, Special Mention, MediaNet (Munich), American Indian Film Festival Nominations: Best Musical Score, Best Cinematography, Hot Docs! Festival; Best Cinematography, Canadian Society of Cinematographers. Broadcasts: CBC Newsworld "Rough Cuts", WTN, SCN, CFCF, TVNC, Knowledge Network, Vision, Open University (Israel) RVU (Netherlands).

1991 Inside the Philippine Revolution 2 hours sound documentary for for CBC Radio "Ideas" on the making of Nettie Wild's documentary A Rustling of Leaves: Inside the Philippine Revolution.

1988 R.D.Laing A three part series for CBC Radio "Ideas" profiling the controversial Scottish psychiatrist: The three parts were titled: The Lies of Love, The Man Who Walked Backwards and Dreaming in Colour. Nominated for Gabriel and Peabody Awards by CBC .

Murray Adaskin A six hour, six part profile of this Canadian composer for CBC Radio "Mostly Music" .

1986 50 Years of Music in Canada 20 hours of interviews and profiles for CBC Radio "Mostly Music" Documentaries for radio with Canadian performers, directors and composers, for a special 50th anniversary of CBC.

1984 The Cold War In Canada, Four part series documentary for CBC Radio "Ideas" on the cultural and political impact of the Cold War. Nomination, ACTRA Award Best Writer: Radio Documentary.

The New Right in BC 150 min, radio, a three part study of neo-conservative politics in British Columbia.